

Title of the Activity	Road Safety week 2018
Organizing Department	Battalion 13 Maharashtra Khamghaon and G.S.NCC unit
Date	11 January to 17 January 2019
Venue	Nandura Road to Jalab Naak
Guest/ Resource Persons	Police Inspector and Traffic Hawaldar of Khamgaon Police Station
No of Beneficiaries	Students-105, Teacher- 03
Brief Report about event	Road Safety Awareness Week was observed with great fervor and commitment from 11 January to 17 January 2019. The event, organized by 13 Maha Battalion NCC Khamgaon, aimed to promote awareness and educate the community about the importance of road safety. Various initiatives and activities were undertaken to address key issues related to road safety and reduce accidents. The Road Safety Awareness Week was inaugurated by police inspector of Khamgaon police station and traffic hawaldar. President of this program Dr. Talwankar, Principal of our college, NCC cadets, college authorities, and local traffic police officials. The event symbolized the commencement of a week dedicated to promoting road safety. NCC Cadet telling the importance of helmet wearing the helmet at the time of driving as well as they tell the people to follow the traffic rule for safe life. Lt. Sanjay Kapse and Battalion staff NCC cadet actively participated in the following event.

Dawar
Dr. D. S. Talwankar
Principal
G.S. Sel., Arts & Commerce
College, Khamgaon-444303