Brief Report about event	This initiative was undertaken in Rahud village of Khamgaon Taluka, about 15 kms from our College, covering seven wards under Grama Panchayath Area. The initiative was planned, instrumentalised and coordinated by NSS Units under the guidance of College Principal and Management. The main objective of competitive examination guidance to the students of the village to create awareness among them regarding the various competitive examinations scheduled by the UPSC, Banking services, SSC, UGC-CSIR, NET/SET Examination, Army recruitment, BSF, CRPF, PSI, STI, MPSC, Police Examination, Talathi Examination etc. To know the pattern of Various Examinations and get the information about the exams conducted for the entry into jobs to become aware about the various soft skills and use the time effectively, become aware about the goals of life. To provide guidance to the students who come from rural background for competitive exam and to incorporate National integration and social harmony. While conducting competition awareness programs at primary and secondary level, it was noticed that the secondary level students did not know about the competitive examination. The time we asked the students, they could not answer anything. He could not even tell them how to be a big officer. The students did not know what is mean by competitive exam. But some of them were very smart. He had just

decided what to expect in the future. Some students had to work in the bank manager, clerk through competitive examinations, and some students wanted Sales Tax Inspector, PSI, Collector, Deputy Collector, through competitive examinations. We are very happy to implement this program on overall primary and secondary level training and excellence because the people of the future will get the benefit of this project. Due to the introduction of awareness programs at primary and secondary level, the students have been involved in competitive knowledge. They received a deep knowledge about how to prepare study and how to prepare Examination for the future.
