COMMERCE COLLEGE, KHAMGAON.

BY

Introducing financial service sector to the students of higher and technical education of Maharashtra

Under the guidance of Directorate of higher education, directorate of technical education Maharashtra

Introducing financial service sectors to the students of higher and technical education, Maharashtra

Background: In order to provide a complete insight on the entire scenario of financial sector and specific input on the CV writing, appearance in interview and provide more career opportunity to the students at their nearby vicinity or in the reputed organizations across country, NABCONS has entrusted this noble opportunity of introduction of financial literacy to the students of Maharashtra in the hybrid online and offline mode. In the first phase, we are conducting two days long offline session in every college in the moderate size of batches and introducing entire concept, while in the second phase students will be provided with option of multiple offline courses along with certification as per their choice.

This report is being prepared for the offline session being held in following colleges in the first phase.

Introducing financial service sectors to the students of higher and technical education, Maharashtra

Following are the attached Photographs-4

3.Acknowledgment: Every change needs great efforts and cooperation from all stake holders involved in the change management and it is the matter of appreciation that entire staff and officials of the Director of Higher education, technical education, joint director office and college shown great enthusiasm towards attending the training session/ orientation session. Their frequent questions boost the confidence of our trainers and project team drastically. We thank you the entire ecosystem for their cooperation and enthusiasm. We are quite hopeful that by maintaining this spirit we will be able to achieve the project objectives efficiently.
