In-house Summer Research Program 2024

Organized by

Innovation, Incubation and Entrepreneurship Cell

Conceptualized by Research Advisory Committee (An initiative of IQAC)

A report on In-house Summer Research Program 2023-24

The In-House Summer Program 2024 aimed to provide students with a unique opportunity to engage in independent research across three key fields: Arts, Commerce, and Science. The program was designed to foster critical thinking, creativity, and academic growth, while also promoting hands-on experience in conducting research. As per policy for promotion of Summer Research, In-house Summer Research Program was conducted during the academic year 2023-24. Names of the interested mentors along with alumni of the G. S. College were invited through a Google form in which their research area was also asked. Total 25 mentors showed their willingness to guide the students. Students' applications were invited through a Google form by the IIC Cell. They were given a choice to select a mentor and area of research. About 347 students applied for the summer internship under the mentorship of 25 mentors.

The Summer Research project was very helpful in enhancing Research Abilities.

Provide the project topics of IT Company to students so that students can enhance their experience.

My project mentor helped me a lot in my summer research project.

I like my mentor and always wants their remark ship in future also they always encourage me to be courageous always

I learned a lot from this summer research project.

Summer research is highly beneficial for students because it provides them with hands-on experience in their field of study, allowing them to develop critical thinking, research skills, and gain valuable exposure to potential career paths.

The feedback from participants in the Summer Research Program demonstrates a highly positive reception of the initiative, with students highlighting the value of hands-on research experience, mentorship, and professional development activities. While there are areas for improvement, such as enhancing independence in research tasks. The overall sentiment indicates that the program successfully met its objectives of fostering academic and research growth. Moving forward, incorporating the suggestions provided by students will help ensure the continued success and evolution of the Summer Research Program.

Recommendations for Future Programs:

- Implement more opportunities for independent research, particularly for upper-level students.
- Consider extending the program duration for projects that require more in-depth research.
- Increase the frequency of mentor check-ins to ensure consistent feedback and guidance.
- Foster interdisciplinary collaboration to provide a more holistic research experience.

By addressing these recommendations, the Summer Research Program can further enhance its impact on student development and academic success.

All the students who undertook in-house summer research were awarded with a institutional scholarship of Rs. 500 each. Total 134 scholars were awarded with a scholarship of Rs. 500 each. It is noteworthy to mention that Hon'ble Vice-President Shri A P Jhunhunwala sponsored a fellowship in the fond memory of freedom fighter Late Purshottamji Motilalji Jhunhunwala.

Key Outcomes and Achievements:

- Increased Research Skills: Students developed critical research skills, including data collection, analysis, and academic writing. The hands-on experience enhanced their ability to conduct independent studies and evaluate information critically.
- Cross-Disciplinary Collaboration: Though students were focused on specific fields, many collaborated across disciplines, exchanging ideas and perspectives that enriched their research process.
- Enhanced Communication Skills: The final presentations allowed students to showcase their work and engage in academic discussions, improving their public speaking and presentation abilities.
- Publication Potential: Some students were encouraged to further develop their research for potential publication in academic journals or to present at conferences.

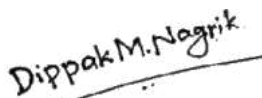

Conclusion:

The In-House Summer Program 2024 provided a platform for students to explore and contribute to their chosen fields of Arts, Commerce, and Science. The research projects completed during the program not only showcased the students' academic potential but also helped them develop valuable skills for their future careers. The program was a resounding success, fostering a culture of inquiry, critical thinking, and interdisciplinary collaboration.
