Book Exhibition

Organizing Department: Library Advisory Committee and the Library Staff

Date: 9-10 December 2021

Venue: Reading Room of the Library

Guest/Resource Persons: Principal Dr D S Talwankar (Inaugurator)

No of Beneficiaries: Students: 421 Teachers: 10 Others: 04

Brief Report about event

For a long time, the college was closed due to the pandemic. During this period, the college library, on the advice of the Library Advisory Committee had procured a large number of English, Hindi, Marathi, Sanskrit and Urdu books on various topics of interest to promote general reading habits among the students.

As the college reopened, the said books were accessed and an exhibition of these books was organized on 09th and 10th December 2021 in the reading room of the library so that the students, teachers and non-teaching staff can view them and note down the books they want to read.

In two days, total 435 people including 421 students visited the exhibition and appreciated the collection. Most of the students took snaps of their favorite books and got them issued for reading the next week.
